

Franklin Diaz

Principal Engineer
20+ years of Network and Security experience

Network and security engineer with over twenty years of professional experience. Four years of experience in providing professional services focused on Palo Alto Networks technologies.

- NGFW configuration, implementation, and management
- Panorama design, implementation and migration
- User-ID design and large-scale implementation
- High Availability network design

- Global pharmaceutical distribution company with over 203,000 employees in 27 countries
- Global telecommunications company with over 23,000 employees in 100 countries

- Performed best-practice assessments and worked with customer stakeholders to plan and successfully execute change strategy to migrate to a variety of best practices in NGFW platform.
- Worked with customer stakeholders to educate, adopt, and apply Palo Alto Networks technologies across a variety of teams, technologies, and business processes.
- Implemented global User-ID design and redistribution as well as global Panorama design and migration.
- Proactively developed design and strategy to quickly and securely scale remote access VPN infrastructure with GlobalProtect in response to COVID-19 pandemic.

- Obtained consistently high CSAT scores throughout the period of customer engagements.